DJ VECTIF (RADOST FX, NUDE, CZ)

www.vectif.cz

DJ Vectif is one of the biggest talents on the Prague underground house club scene, currently favoring a distinctive deep/tech-tribal house sound. From his first stint behind the decks in 1998 he has slowly worked his way into the Czech DJ premier league.

Vectif has already appeared numerous times at the Roxy, was resident in 2000 for Prozak parties at the renowned club Radost FX and has played all the important clubs in Prague including Mecca.

He has regular bookings at clubs throughout the Czech Republic and in the course of his Djing career has played alongside such respected names as Danny Rampling, Eddie Richards, Asad Rizvi, Phil Perry, Colin Dale, Nathan Coles, Nils Hess, Linus, Alex Dean aka Souldoubt, Sander Kleinenberg, Corvin Dalek, Jay Chappel, Jaydee, Mijk van Dijk, Nicky Holloway, Marco Carola and many others. Not content just with Djing, Vectif is also a very active promoter, recently having thrown large-scale dance events at the venue K.C. Karlov in Benešov under the names: Plastic Dreams, Fabric vs. The End, Amazing party and Pepsi Sound System which were visited by a sum of more than 10 000 clubbers.

On top of all this Vectif was able still to find time to present, together with Chris Sadler, the show Vinyl Vibrations on Radio Vox 95.3 FM every Friday evening from 6 'till 8 p.m. with a repeat Sunday night from 9 'till 11 which was voted as one of the best radio shows in the Czech Republic by the leading Czech dance magazine Tripmag in 2001. Around the end of 2000 Vectif worked as co-presenter for Ultramix – a TV show about dance-music and club culture- which was broadcasted on Czech TV3.

Vectif also plays all of the biggest Czech open air festivals including Open Air Field 2001, Svojsice 2001, Hradhouse 2002, and Open Air Field 2002 where he played on the main stage alongside with The Chemical Brothers and Sasha as well as Creamfields together with Underworld and many others.

He has regular residencies in neighboring Slovakia and Hungary where he has invited such guests as Eddie Richards, Asad Rizvi, Haris and Linus.

Since September 2001 he works as the production & PR manager at the legendary club Radost FX in Prague and he is a resident DJ there.

During his two years at the helm, Radost FX has gone from strength to strength and is currently enjoying one of the most successful periods in the club's history.
